Sub: Extension of period for inclusion of name in birth record.

Sir,

You may be aware that rule 10 of the State Rule framed under section 14 of the Registration of Births and Deaths (RBD), Act 1969 prescribed the period of 15 years for entering the name of child in the birth record in respect of those cases where the name has not been mentioned in the birth record.

2. In this connection, this is to inform you that at the time of introduction of revamped system of registration of births and deaths in the year 2000, many States/ UTs have made the provision of reckoning the period of 15 years in State Rule 10 from 1-1-2000 or the date of introduction of the revamped system in the State/ UT in case of those events which were registered prior to the commencement of this rule. In view of the said provision, 15 years period in these States are still prevailing up to 31.12.2014.

3. However, in respect of those States, where the period of 15 years has not been prescribed from the date of introduction of revamped system, public is facing problem in entering the name in the birth record at this stage. Such issues have been raised by many States from time to time to our office and requested for an amendment in rule 10 for relaxation of another 15 years period. However, after examining the issue, ORGI decided not to give further extension, once 15 years period has already been given. However, in view of the problems faced by the public in entering the name in birth certificate it has been decided to give them a relaxation of one year or two years for entering the name in birth record. Accordingly, such opportunity was given to few states.

4. The RGI has desired that an opportunity should be given to such other States also for entering the name in birth records under the revamped system. As the 15 years period has already been exhausted in your State, it is therefore requested that State Government should give an opportunity to general public to enter the name in birth records up to 31st Dec. 2014 for all old cases where the name has not been entered in the birth record. This opportunity can be given by issuing an executive order by the State Government; there would be no need to make an amendment in Rule 10.

5. The RGI has also desired that State Government should give wide Publicity about this relaxation and the importance of birth certificate with name through local newspaper/hoarding, TV News captions or by any other means so that all backlog should be cleared during this period. The publicity campaign should clearly indicate that no further extension will be given.

6. You are requested to do the needful and intimate this office about the action taken. A copy of the order issued in this regard may also be sent to this office.

Yours faithfully

(P.A. Mini)
