The Chief Registrar of Births & Deaths

Maharashtra

Sub: Removal of irregularities and corrupt practices in registration of birth and death System. (Civil registration System)

Sir,

Please refer this office letter of even number dated 25th March, 2015 vide which you were requested to send a copy of the direction issued by you in respect of concrete efforts and suitable steps taken to prevent the bribery under the existing system of registration of births and deaths and in issuance of extract/ certificates.

2. This office has not yet received any response from your end about the steps taken in this regard; you are therefore requested to take tangible efforts and suitable steps to prevent the bribery under the existing system of registration of births and deaths so that general public will not suffer in obtaining birth / death certificate within the stipulated time limit. The essential steps required to be taken by the State Governments have already been communicated with the above referred letter.

3. In order to streamline the successful and citizen friendly civil registration system, you are therefore requested once again to take necessary steps in this regard on priority basis and this office may be apprised about the action taken by your office in the matter.

Yours faithfully,

(R. K/Gautam)
